

And now Admonition...

Two men were invited to take part in the ceremony. They were invited to take part in the beginning of a ceremony that that would set and alter the course of an entire nation. And they didn't live through the experience. Aaron had two sons names Nadab, and Abihu. He had four... those two we're talking about, Nadab and Abihu were priests of God. They were supposed to offer fire and incense upon the altar and they didn't do it properly. And do you know why? If you read Leviticus chapter 10 very carefully, you'll find out why... they were drunk. They didn't know the difference between one fire and another, and they put the wrong fire on the altar and God took their lives. Don't drink.
